

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

PASSED BY THE TWENTY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

NUMBER 1.

JOINT RESOLUTION AND MEMORIAL of the General Assembly of Iowa, Relating to a Northwestern Branch of the National Home for Disabled and Indigent Soldiers and Sailors.

WHEREAS, The policy of the general government is to make suitable provision for the care of disabled and indigent soldiers and sailors of the civil war through the maintenance of National Soldiers' Homes, and

WHEREAS, A very large number of the old soldiers and sailors at the close of the war, sought residence in the northwest in order that they might avail themselves of the free lands of the government, and in hope of being better able here than elsewhere to provide for the future support of themselves and families; and

WHEREAS, The government as yet has made no provision for the establishment of a branch of said home in the northwest; and in view of the further fact that the homes already created are inadequate for the care of old soldiers and sailors eligible to admission; therefore

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa,

That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be earnestly requested to exert themselves to present the needs of the soldiers and sailors of the northwest in this regard, and to labor as their wisdom and sense of justice may dictate, to the end that provision be made by Congress for a northwestern branch of the Soldiers' Home; and that our Senators and Representatives furthermore make all proper effort to secure the location of such northwestern branch within the State of Iowa, as in the judgment of this General Assembly such location would best accommodate the largest number of old soldiers and sailors to whom such home would be available in time of misfortune as a just recognition of a faithful government of their services and sacrifices in time of great national emergency.

Approved February 18, 1886.

JOINT RESOLUTION AND MEMORIAL, for the protection of Iowa Manufacturers.

WHEREAS, there has been introduced into the Congress of the United States, two certain bills, being Nos. H. R. 3291 and H. R. 3973, said bills being in substance and effect to compel all vinegar manufacturers, who distill low wines, either to pay the regular distiller's tax, or buy their high wines from the distillers, or cease the manufacture of vinegar.

In either event, the increase in price to the consumer, and the flooding of the market with cheap acid vinegar, as was the state of affairs previous to the present law; therefore,

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly,

That the passage of such a law as is proposed in said bills would work great hardships to the consumer and manufacturer of vinegars in the State of Iowa, and destroy, to a large extent, the present home market for corn, now furnished by the numerous manufacturers of vinegars in the State of Iowa.

Resolved, That our Senators be instructed and our Representatives requested to work and vote against said bills.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State is hereby instructed to promptly forward to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress a properly attested copy of this resolution.

Approved March 13, 1886.

NUMBER 3.

MEMORIAL AND JOINT [CONCURRENT] RESOLUTION, by the House, the Senate concurring.

Resolved, That our Senators, and Representatives in Congress are requested to use all their influence, and votes, at the earliest time possible for the passage of an act for the pensioning of soldiers of the Union army of the late war, who were during that time while in the discharge of duty, captured, and confined in Confederate prisons; and

That the Secretary of State, is requested to furnish each of our members in Congress, a copy of this resolution.
